

CHIA Huey Yen, MSc

Senior Physiotherapist

Qualification(s)

Master of Science, Palliative Care, King's College London

Bachelor of Science in Physiotherapy (Honours), Singapore
Institute of Technology/Trinity College Dublin,
Singapore/Ireland

Diploma in Physiotherapy, Nanyang Polytechnic, Singapore

Special Certifications

Certification for Exercise for the Management of Cancer (LIFE NOW exercise instructor Course)

Certification in Dr Vodders Manual Lymphatic Drainage – Basic and Level I

Workgroups/Work Areas

Rehabilitative Palliative Care

Oncology Rehabilitation

Specialty and Interest Areas

Clinical Areas

- Development of Oncology Rehabilitation outpatient services
- Co-lead for geriatric oncology services (GOLDEN)
- Rehabilitative Palliative Care

Research Areas

- Development of evidence-based rehabilitation guidelines for the cancer and palliative care population

Professional Activities

2020, 2021 Course trainer for the Palliative Care Course for Therapists (PCCT)

2021 Chair for the symposium “Integrative Approach in Oncology/Palliative Care” in Singapore International Physiotherapy Congress (SIPC)

Awards

2017 Academic Medicine Development Award (AMDA)

Selected Presentations

Singapore Palliative Care Conference (SPCC) 2021: A systematic review on the referral criteria for physiotherapy among patients with advanced life-limiting illnesses

World Confederation for Physiotherapy (WCPT) 2015: Prevalence of physical impairments, rehabilitation participation and the associations with quality of life in cancer survivors.

Singapore International Physiotherapy Congress (SIPC) 2014: Exercise Intervention prevents cardiopulmonary deconditioning during haematopoietic stem cell transplant